

RECOLTANT

2018 CABERNET SAUVIGNON, COOMBSVILLE

TASTING NOTES

The inaugural vintage of Recoltant Coombsville Cabernet has floral aromatics of sage and dark lily followed by ripe black cherry, raspberry, and plum. On the palate the wine has ripe fruits of blackberry, plum and blueberry. There is an essence of cocoa, dried herbs and lifted acidity creating an incredible balance to the overall wine.

BACKGROUND

Recoltant is produced by Julien Fayard, who is absolutely at the top of his game. Recoltant is a composition of declassified barrels from premium Cabernet that Julien has unparalleled access to in the Napa Valley. The final blend was created with fruit sourced from several celebrated sub-regions throughout Napa Valley, and Julien made the wine with the same standards of excellence that he practices in all of his projects.

Julien Fayard learned his craft at Château Lafite Rothschild, before gaining even more valuable experience as Director of Winemaking for Philippe Melka at elite Napa Valley producers like Lail, Gemstone, Hundred Acre, and Mastery.
