

PINOT NOIR

WINE ENTHUSIAST, MATT KETTMANN (92 PTS) —Clean lines of plump black raspberry, pastry crust and tarragon make for a delicious nose on this estate bottling. Snappy raspberry flavors kick off the sip, where lilac, wild mint and dried herbs prove both fresh and delicate.

WINE ADVOCATE, ERIN BROOKS (92 PTS) — Made from Dijon clone vines, the 2018 Pinot Noir Estate has a pale ruby-purple color and scents of spiced rhubarb and black cherries with notes of fragrant earth and tangerine peel. The palate is light-bodied, silky, bright and juicy with spice-laced fruits and a layered finish. 2,510 cases produced.

CHARDONNAY

Varietal: 100% Chardonnay

Alcohol: 13.9%

Case Production: 1,692

Aging: 11 months in French oak, 18% new oak

WINE ADVOCATE, ERIN BROOKS (91 PTS) —The 2018 Chardonnay Estate has inviting aromas of spiced apples, toast and dried flowers with a honeyed undercurrent. The palate is medium-bodied, bright, textural and nutty with a long, mineral-laced finish. 1,692 cases produced.

WINE ENTHUSIAST, MATT KETTMANN (91 PTS) — Salty lemon- and orange-peel aromas meet with grippy chalk and the hint of stuck match on the nose of this bottling. There is a stony quality to the sip, where lime-pith and seared orange-slice flavors arise.
