

TATE

2019 CABERNET SAUVIGNON SPRING STREET, NAPA VALLEY

TASTING NOTES

The 2019 Spring Street Cabernet Sauvignon may be the most sizeable Spring Street Cabernet that we ever made. A beautiful mid purple hue comes from the glass. Aromatics of blueberry pie, vanilla bean and pomegranate concentrate are immediately apparent with slight fragrances of coffee grounds, cedar and black licorice. There is pleasant richness to the wine, where more sweet spices of clover and cinnamon start to emerge alongside the bright red fruit. This more sizeable valley floor wine will age wonderfully over the next 8-9 years (2029-2030).

BACKGROUND

David Tate, a native of British Columbia, Canada, is the Winemaker and Founder of TATE along with his wife Suzanne Tate. Established in 2011, TATE is known for single expression wines from independently owned, micro-vineyards across the valley floor and mountain sides of the Napa Valley.

David is also the General Manager and Winemaker for Barnett Vineyards atop Spring Mountain in the Napa Valley since 2007. Prior to his work with TATE and Barnett, David was the assistant winemaker at Ridge Vineyards for five years at Montebello in the Santa Cruz Mountains. Suzanne Tate's roots are in Texas but will quickly tell you that Northern California and the Napa Valley are now 'home'. After five years of distribution in Texas, Suzanne had a chance meeting with David at a wine dinner and well, as they say the rest is history. Suzanne moved to the Napa Valley in 2010 and very quickly, the idea of TATE came to life.

From our small start of 400 cases, TATE is now producing just over 1,000 cases annually of Chardonnay from Yountville, Merlot from Calistoga and single-vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon's from St. Helena, Mt. Veeder and Howell Mountain.
